VA BHHCS Supports Good Neighbor Day

Volunteers at VA Black Hills Health Care System (BHHCS) handed out roses to Veteran patients today, in support of Good Neighbor Day.

Good Neighbor Day is an annual event that allows volunteers to pick up free roses and carnations from Rockingtree Floral and Garden Center in Sturgis, to hand out as a gesture of good will and friendship, and to brighten their neighbors' day.

"Rockingtree Floral has supported VA for many years with the beautiful flowers they provide and their support of the Veterans," said Cheryl Rieniets, Voluntary Service Specialist at VA BHHCS.

Today is the 17th annual Good Neighbor Day. The event is made possible by Rockingtree Floral and Garden Center, First Interstate Bank, KBHB Radio and Florists' Transworld Delivery Group, Inc.
